

Join us to commemorate the 2012 International Day of Peace by attending a screening of the film featuring 2011 Nobel Peace Prize winner Leymah Gbowee of Liberia

Friday 21st September, 7.00 for 7.15pm

Multi-Faith Centre, Griffith University Nathan Campus

The film tells the amazing and inspiring story of a peace movement called Women of Liberia Mass Action for Peace. Initiated by Leymah Gbowee, the movement organized the Christian and Muslim women of Monrovia, Liberia to pray for peace and to engage in nonviolent protests against the continuation of the civil war. Dressed in white to symbolize peace, and numbering in the thousands, the women became a political force against violence.

All welcome, free of charge. Conversation & light refreshments afterwards.

For more information or to RSVP: wendy.flannery@gmail.com 0439 771 692